100 Documents That Changed the World: From the Magna Carta to Wikileaks

Scott Christianson : 100 Documents That Changed the World: From the Magna Carta to Wikileaks before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 100 Documents That Changed the World: From the Magna Carta to Wikileaks:

A tour of the history of the world through the declarations, manifestos, and agreements from the Magna Carta and the Declaration of Independence to Wikileaks. This fascinating collection gathers the most significant written documents that have influenced and shaped the way we think about the world and the course of history. From the Magna Carta (1215) to the Gettysburg Address (1863) to Martin Luther King, Jr.'s I Have a Dream speech (1963), the documents showcased here chart dramatic high points of world history. In addition to official charters and famous treaties, there are also less well known yet nonetheless interesting items included, such as the Apollo flight plan, Apples 1976 incorporation documents, and the check with which the U.S. purchased Alaska from Russia. Equally interesting are Watson and Cricks scrawled notes leading to the discovery of DNA, Darwins journal, and the annotated manuscripts for Freuds Interpretation of Dreams and Orwells novel 1984. Beautifully illustrated in full color, this book not only informs but also entertains as it demonstrates how the power of the written word has shaped, changed, enhanced, and even revolutionized the world.
