before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A history of the Western Books Exhibition : if they've got to flap, let them flap splendidly:

Printed by Richard J. Hoffman in an edition limited to 250 copies. A history of one of the most famous American regional book exhibits, the Western Books Exhibition, from its creation in 1939 into the 1970s. The basis for the book was the minute records, scrapbooks, publications and files of the Exhibition's sponsor, the Rounce Coffin Club; interviews with Richard J. Hoffman, Muir Dawson, Grant Dahlstrom and other members were also part of the author's research. An important work on the artistry of bookmaking. Includes notes, list of jurors, catalogues and sources. 94 2 pages. quarter cloth, decorated paper-covered boards. small 8vo..
