By Paul Bychko Jr.Nothing new here. Pretty much just backgrounds of athletes/celebrities that this person has gotten the autograph from. When it comes to the parts where he writes about getting the autograph, it is only a sentence or two...and it goes something like this..."I gave the person my golf ball and he signed it with a sharpie."

Hooked on Autographs by Joe Galiardi is an unforgettable collection of anecdotes and yarns that highlight what it took for the author to obtain over two hundred and fifty celebrity signed golf balls over the past twenty years. In this unusual memoir, the author describes many of his favorite stories in garnering and gathering autographed golf balls from golfers, entertainers, sports figures, and U.S. presidents. With a wonderfully engaging and colloquial driven prose, golf lovers will revel and non-golfers will delight. Beginning with how he became an autograph seeker, in sixteen spirited chapters Galiardi shares the best parts. With titles such as "Jack Lemmon - A 'Cut' Above," "Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitation," "Presidents of the United States," and "In a Class by Themselves," he shares an infectious passion for the hobby of collecting autographs. Be certain, Galiardi's thrill of the hunt is more fun than the hole in one.

About the AuthorJoe Galiardi, a graduate of Pennsylvania State University, worked in public relations and marketing until his retirement in 1993. An avid collector of golf autographs for twenty years, he claims to have one of the largest private collections of autographed golf balls in the world. He and his wife, Judy, live in Cupertino, California. Hooked on Autographs is his first book.
