Even if youre not very familiar with the source marieral, i-D, youll likely find yourself pretty pleased with this set of 75 unique cards. Theres a few text-only/logo cards that will be tough to find an appreciative audience, but overall its well curated. Youll get a few musicians like Gwen Stefani, Neneh Cherry, and Madonna, along with iconic models like Moss, Valletta, Campbell. Plus a whole lot of colorful in-your-face pops of punky graphics the zine is known for.The card stock is nice and sturdy. The message side is an ink-friendly matte with pre printed address and postage fields. There's a faint gray vertically-oriented photographer/cover model credit that, gratefully, doesn't interfere with your message. These clock in just shy of 4 high by a perfect 6 so if mailing within the U.S. you'll only need a postcard rate stamp. A fun, high quality set that will be exciting and new to a younger generation and takes those of us in middle age down memory lane. Good stuff. Oh, and as these cards are loose in a box, rather than glue-bound or perforated, you don't have to worry about annoying rips or paper bending.

i-D is one of the coolest fashion magazines around. Since it launched in 1980, it continues to pioneer the hybrid style of documentary and fashion photography. Its design and typography have always been intimately connected to street fashion and youth culture. i-D has launched the careers of many models, stylists and photographers, and competed with the more directly commercial fashion magazines. i-D's distinctive 'winky face' instantly brings a playful irreverence to all its cover stars which include Kate Moss, Lady Gaga, Cara Delevigne, Linda Evangelista, Karl Lagerfeld, Vivienne Westwood, Naomi Campbell and countless other style icons. The postcards come in a box with a slide-on lid.

About the Author i-D began as a fanzine dedicated to the street style of punk-era London in 1980, and has developed into a glossy magazine that documents fashion and contemporary culture, and has broken ground defining it too. After more than 30 years, its editorial content still manages to surprise and inspire.
