In Step with Fashion: 200 Years of Shoe Styles

Norma Shephard : In Step with Fashion: 200 Years of Shoe Styles before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised In Step with Fashion: 200 Years of Shoe Styles:

This fresh new book offers an intimate look at shoe styles. More than 550 color photographs reveal foot fashion favorites and their correlation to ever-changing social factors. No other item of apparel is so closely related to the senses as shoes: the scent of leather, the click of a stiletto, the softness of a satin bedroom slipper. Is it any wonder that today shoe lovers form collector clubs, produce shoe videos, and organize sneaker subculture events? But what makes a shoe collectible--design? workmanship? celebrity association? Savor past designs and glimpse the future of shoe styles through the work of avante-garde designers John Fluevog and Danny Sullivan. The glossary, index, and value guide assist archivists, researchers, clothing dealers, designers, and dedicated shoe hounds.

About the Author Norma Shephard is a fashion historian who runs the Mobile Millinery Museum (www.hatmuseum.ca), a unique traveling museum. She is the author of other books on vintage fashions and lives in Ontario, Canada.
