Indian Pottery of the Southwest: A Selected Bibliography

Marcia Muth : Indian Pottery of the Southwest: A Selected Bibliography before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Indian Pottery of the Southwest: A Selected Bibliography:

Pottery is one of the earliest and oldest crafts in the history of mankind. It has evolved from the utilitarian to the purely artistic, from cooking pots to storyteller dolls. Native American pottery has flourished in the American Southwest since 300 B.C. This selected bibliography is a guide for both the collector and the general reader who would like additional information about Native American pottery and potters.
