Miller's Art Deco: Living with the Art Deco Style

Judith Miller : Miller's Art Deco: Living with the Art Deco Style before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Miller's Art Deco: Living with the Art Deco Style:

Divided into sections, furniture, pottery,glassware and others etc Ms Miller reviews each with explanation and multiple photo examples. Furniture seems to be very thorough but pottery less so. Glassware is more extensive. While not detailed enough for research this book gives a fairly complete overview of Art Deco. Captions are detailed with pictures and the period well covered with American and European examples. This would be a great coffee table book with its bright cover. Judith Miller fans will find this similar to her other volumes on specific topics.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Not my favorite time period but he certainly seemed to be pleased ...By Anita D. MilliganThis was a Christmas gift for my stepson who likes all things Art Deco. Not my favorite time period but he certainly seemed to be pleased with it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy mariagood book

With its streamlined shapes and forward-looking approach, the Art Deco style still looks modern today. In the 1920s and 1930s, designers and craftsmen made innovative use of both natural and man-made materials to produce elegant pieces that broke with tradition and celebrated the future. In this beautifully illustrated guide, antiques expert Judith Miller explores the key makers and pieces of the movement, explaining what to look for as a collector. The book explores all the key collecting areas, with chapters on furniture, glass, ceramics, sculpture, metalwork, silver and jewellery, prints and posters, rugs and textiles. With clear price codes and biographies of key makers and designers, the book also contains "A Closer Look" and "Good, Better, Best, Masterpiece" features comparing ranges of items from makers and factories.

About the Author Judith Miller began collecting in the 1960s while a student at Edinburgh University in Scotland. She has since extended and reinforced her knowledge of antiques through international research, becoming one of the world's leading experts in the field. In 1979 she co-founded the international best-seller Miller's Antiques Price Guide and has since written more than 100 books which are held in high regard by collectors and dealers. Judith Miller appears regularly on TV and radio. She is an expert on the BBC's Antiques Roadshow and co-hosts the popular BBC series The House Detectives, ITV's Antiques Trail, and Discovery's It's Your Bid. She has appeared on The Martha Stewart Show and CNN. She is a regular lecturer and contributor to numerous newspapers and magazines, including the Financial Times, BBC Homes Antiques and House Garden. She has lectured extensively, including at the VA in London and the Smithsonian in Washington.
