Disappointing For MeBy R PRIUSFor the collector of movie star home postcards which were extremely popular in the the first half of the 20th century, this is probably a desirable book. However, if you are interested in substantial biographical information about the residents of these homes and the homes' histories this book falls way short. It is essentially a picture book with very little substance. However, it must be noted that the pictures have been replicated very nicely and the book has a slick look.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Hollywood Homes!By Edward J. FairchildGreat memories!! Like walkin' right down Hollywood streets and "hering" the stars call out or waving!!!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The book is really good.By kathryn stoutI just wanted more. My fault. The book is really good.

Tour the homes of great movie stars of the silver screen, from early silent films to the Technicolor years. Over 360 postcards and photos display the residences of Fred Astaire, Lucille Ball, Lionel Barrymore, James Cagney, Charlie Chaplin, Joan Crawford, Marlene Dietrich, Peter Falk, Judy Garland, Elvis Presley, Sonny and Cher, and many more. Facts about the most memorable films, Hollywood careers, and quotes from the stars are featured. This book is sure to be a show stopper for movie buffs, postcard collectors, and "star" gazers.

About the AuthorAs a kid, Mike Oldham gained bragging rights on his block by going to Beverly Hills with his family to view the homes of the stars. As an adult, Oldham continues to soak up the area several times a month with day trips from his home in Irvine, California. He has authored several books about California and its movie stars, and enjoys photography.
