

Konstantin Kakanias
*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

(Download pdf) Mrs. Tependris: The Contemporary Years

Mrs. Tependris: The Contemporary Years

Konstantin Kakanias : Mrs. Tependris: The Contemporary Years before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mrs. Tependris: The Contemporary Years:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. but a nice breezy trip through the styles of some famous contemporary ...By merry pruitThe artwork is spot-on, and that's the whole point of the book. No plot to speak of, but a nice breezy trip through the styles of some famous contemporary artists. Make sure you like the font on the cover, because you're going to be reading that throughout.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy hartley barclayQuirky and fun!2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. For someone well-read and witty...By Michele S.This was a wonderful book. Very funny. Very clever. A terrific character to get to know and the illustrations make you laugh out loud.

Artist Kakaniias' whimsical gouaches and calligraphy document the couture-wearing Mrs Tependris' madcap adventures into the world of contemporary art, commenting upon the work of 41 contemporary artists, from John Baldessari to Andy Warhol. A witty tale of self-discovery and a provocative criticism of the art world.

About the AuthorKonstantin Kakaniias is a painter whose art has been shown at galleries in New York City, Los Angeles, Paris, Geneva, London, Athens, and Milan. His work on Mrs. Tependris won second prize from the New York Times for International Newspaper Design in 1996 and has also been the subject matter of several of his solo shows. His work has been reviewed in Art in America, Time Out, The Village Voice, W, Elle Decor, The New Yorker, The Art Magazine, Vanity Fair, and Vogue. He lives in Los Angeles and Greece.Hamish Bowles is a respected authority in the worlds of fashion and interior design. The European Editor at Large of Vogue magazine, he was a creative consultant and guest curator at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, where he organized and mounted the Costume Institute exhibition Jacqueline Kennedy: The White House Years-Selections from the John F. Kennedy Library and Museum. He resides in New York City and Paris.