Ocean Liners Paintings Cards (Card Books)

John Batchelor : Ocean Liners Paintings Cards (Card Books) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ocean Liners Paintings Cards (Card Books):

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Ocean Liner Paintings Cards, J. Batchelor By Andrew J. Cannata Reductions of twenty-four superb, highly detailed full-color paintings of ocean liners in 4-1/4 by 6 inch tear-out postcard format. There is a biographical synopsis for each vessel located on reverse sides of the covers. Artwork is of a more illustrative rather than an artistic nature which is generally preferred by the serious ocean liner enthusiast as it enhances the subject detail. The only gross error detected was the inclusion of the likeness of the RMS Mauretania I (1907) in the location reserved for the RMS Titanic (1912), which caption and biography was, however, included. My copy was an unused, like-new 5 year old paperback in superb condition. Priced as originally published. I was not disappointed with this purchase.

Striking collection of 24 full-color cards recalls the elegance and drama of those magnificent "floating palaces." Handsome renderings of the Bremen, Queen Mary, Lusitania, le de France, United States, Libert, Andrea Doria, Titanic, 16 other impressive vessels. For ocean-liner enthusiasts and travel aficionados. Captions.
